

AMHPS 25th Annual Symposium on Career Opportunities in Biomedical Sciences and Health Professions

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Participants are selected based on eligibility, merit of their application, and their demonstrated interest in the biomedical sciences or health professions.

Participant requirements include:

- Underrepresented Minority (African-American, Latino/Hispanic, Asian/Native Hawaiian and other Pacific Islander or American Indian/Alaskan Native ethnicity)
- Must be involved in an HCOP (Health Careers Opportunity Program) or other health professions pipeline program OR an approved science enrichment program*
- High school sophomores, juniors and seniors
- All College students
- Student must have a cumulative 2.5 GPA
- Demonstrated interest in biomedical sciences and health professions

The science enrichment program must be coordinated by a high school science teach (or equivalent) and conducted in conjunction/partnership with a local school district or college/university*

Submission of an application does not guarantee acceptance to the Symposium